

FEED BACK
S.No.	Programme	Particulars	Feed back
1	Visiting Faculty	Manifestion of Corrosion in Human Civilization	The beneficiaries reflected their views by giving feedback. Most of them felt the programme is having good relevance to the curriculum and area of the topic is adequately covered and the delivery is good. It also updated the knowledge to an excellent level and there is a good scope for interaction.
		Tiny Materials Shiny Applications	Majority of them expressed that the topic is highly relevant and adequately covered and delivered excellently. The audience interacted and updated their knowledge in the innovative field in a very good manner.
2	Workshop	Microscale Experiments in Chemistry	Relevance of the programme to the curriculum, demonstration of the experiments, interaction, overall implementation and all other factors are excellently executed.
3	Hands on Training	Techniques on Analytical Testing	Most of the trainees felt that the training is highly useful and some of them felt that it was very good.
4	Industrial Visit	Visit to Agni Steels, Perundurai	The visit was highly useful in learning the different process involved in the manufacture of TMT Steel.
5	Seminar	One day National Seminar on Chemistry and Pharma - An Interdisciplinary Approach	The students of parent institution and other colleges articulated the excellent relevance of the theme of the seminar. The quality of information is exemplary. The stakeholders expressed their gratitude to the resource persons for enthralling them with the knowledge.